

ONE CENT--LAST EDITION--ONE CENT

HUGHES OPENS ILLINOIS CAMPAIGN

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 301 Chicago, Tuesday, September 19, 1916

398

WOMAN VICTIM OF LOVE SWINDLE EXPOSES TANGO CROOKS

Mrs. Regina A. Klipper Reveals Story of Love Affair
That Led To Shakedown—Society Women's Letters
Found—Erbstein Demands Return of Evidence.

Mrs. Regina A. Klipper, the Philadelphia widow who was fleeced by blackmailers, arrived in Chicago today and told her story of the tango love swindle to Dis't Att'y Clyne and Hinton G. Clabaugh of the dep't of justice.

Mrs. Klipper was closely guarded when she arrived in the city shortly before. U. S. agents feared a spectacular attempt on the part of confederates of the swindlers to again kidnap the witness.

Mrs. Klipper, who had the nerve to bare her relations with a handsome young swindler to help punish the gang, is to take the stand today before U. S. Com'r Foote when the gang caught in the raid on the Tyson apartments are arraigned.

Mrs. Klipper, who is about 35, the mother of two children, is attractive and a stylish dresser. She admitted that her fondness for the tango and fox trot led to her swindling.

Mrs. Klipper met Frank Crocker